FRIENDS OF HYDE PARK & KENSINGTON GARDENS

Founded in 1991 to preserve the peace and beauty of the Parks

MEMBER EVENTS

Members are offered exclusive opportunities to participate in a programme of events organised by the Friends.

Most of these are visits to places not normally open to the public and privileged access, accompanied by an expert guide, is one of the benefits particularly appreciated by members.

A list of forthcoming events open to members is distributed twice yearly, and coincides with publication of the FHPKG newsletter, packed with information and news about the Parks.

The Royal Parks are a priceless heritage for the people of London and an invaluable source of pleasure for visitors

The aims of the Friends are to

- help preserve the peace and beauty of the Parks, the restoration of their historic layout and the protection of their trees, plants, birds and animal life
- promote these unique and timeless facilities and raise public awareness and appreciation of them
- in conjunction with the parks' staff and bodies associated with the Parks, seek public support and involvement in protecting these exceptional urban open spaces for all visitors to enjoy
- raise funds to help achieve these aims
- encourage more members of the public to become Friends

Founded in 1991, the Friends of Hyde Park & Kensington Gardens is a voluntary organisation, managed by a chairman and committee, all volunteers, who give their time and energy in seeking to achieve the objectives of the Society. It acquired charitable status in 2016.

The charity publishes and distributes a regular newsletter (Spring and Autumn) to its members, keeping them up to date on events, issues and topics of interest connected with Hyde Park and Kensington Gardens.
